“ Just one of my memories of "Mr. Tommy Segura "

One day I was cutting the grass you pulled up in all white and told me to get off the riding lawn mower, you was arguing with me to get off and I was arguing with you that I was going to stay on an finish, I told you continue you day and you tricked me off the lawn mower and told me something happen in the house. I came back and you was laughing and wouldn't let me finish cutting the grass, that was you always smiling and always clowning and acting silly and I told you if you needed me I would always be there and I was and you called and kept in touch, all I would here is Ma I need this Ma can you do that how I wish I could here that 1000 more times I love ya baby boy and I always will until we meet again. Love Mama Tam
