Vicki graduated with a B.S. in Elementary Education from University of Southwestern Louisiana (now ULL) and taught math for several years before she left teaching to work in accounting. She was a bookkeeper for Martin Pipe in Lafayette, LA for many years and considered the Martins like family. She was a dedicated and loyal employee. Outside of work, Vicki loved watching LSU football and baseball. Over the years, she also enjoyed playing tennis and bowling, but most of all Vicki loved visiting with family and friends.

her sister-in-law, Kathleen LeBlanc of Lake Arthur, LA; her godchildren Jane McSpadden Miller (Greg) of Kingwood, TX, Eric LeBlanc (Myke) of Lafayette, LA, and Matthew Murphy of Ogden, UT; her many nieces and nephews as well as great-nieces and great-nephews; and two very special young people in her life, Blaise Broussard and Lucy Broussard Taylor (Dustin);

Vicki now rejoices in Heaven with her parents, Milton A. and Yola Landry LeBlanc; her brother, Gerald LeBlanc; her sisters, Kathy Murphy and Joan Quebodeaux; her brother-in-law, Emery Quebodeaux; and her great nephew Aidan William McSpadden.

Vicki's family would like to thank her two lifelong "sisters at heart" who took great care of Vicki in her illness: Debbie Guilbeau (with her husband Drew) and Paula Reeves; as well as Dr. Joseph Brierre and his staff for their support during her treatments; Hospice of Acadiana, especially nurse Joann Harrington; and Vee's Sitter Services, especially Ms. Ashley Landry.
