“ My deepest and sincere condolences to all of Walter's family. As fate would have it I was only lucky enough to know Walter for a short time. The thing that struck me most about him, one of his many fine qualities, was how he humbly helped so many and accomplished so much without ever making excuses. A truly admirable man.

*To my dear friend of 1974 class of GhS You kept encouraging me when I was down or when I'd skin my Knees going down that hill and crossing the road I'd loved our short chats I kept thinking Walter is gonna be a wiz in math like a professor he just keeps on trying and that would put a smile on my face . I know if you had a choice you would never have taken that heavenly journey but you did heaven has gained another Cajun Angel tonight and we will miss you my friend your kindness helpfulness and strength in every task you took ,you are a friend to many and to those that knew you the best knows you will love ❤️ them forevermore they will cherish the memories of thier Dad gramps and mostly the love 💕 of your life she will keep you in her heart forever . Today Heaven gained a Cajun Angel and we will miss you Walter signed your friend classmate
