“ Wanda was a beautiful woman inside and out for all those who knew her knows where I am coming from for those who dis not you missed alot. She was a devoted mother and loved her kids. We often fought and fought with each other but love was what brought us back together. Thanks to Wanda she brought me and Mason together and we are now married thanks to that one night in Panchoville. I will miss her and so will everyone else but her spirit is still with us. She is watching over us every minute since she let us on that one day 11/11/2009
