

Warren J. Davis

April 27, 1940 - October 26, 2013

Warren J. Davis Jennings: the family and friends of Warren J. Davis are mourning the loss of their loved one who was called from his earthly existence on October 15, 2013 at the age of 73. Known to those that loved him as “Bop”, he was born to Joseph Davis and Almeda Gordon Davis on April 27, 1940. Warren attended Southern University where he earned a degree in education. After attending college, Warren served his country honorably in the United States Army where he fought courageously in the Vietnam War. He also earned the prestige title of Private First Class and numerous medals of accommodations. Following his military service, Warren worked for city services as an operator for many years. On his spare time, he enjoyed working on cars and fishing. He was a great person and had a spectacular personality. Warren will be dearly missed by all who were blessed to have known him. Warren is survived by his son, Warren Washington of Baton Rouge; daughter, Psyche Sims of Lake Charles; his two sisters, Betty Hunter of Marrero and Audrey Winey and her husband Harold of Lake Charles; and numerous grandchildren. Warren now rests in Heaven with his beloved family who preceded him in death: his parents, Joseph and Almeda G. Davis; and a brother, Donald Davis. A mass of Christian burial will be held at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church in Jennings, LA on Saturday, October 26, 2013 at 11:00 AM with Father Augustine Mulanjany officiating. Burial will follow in OLPH Cemetery where he will be honored with full military rites. Visitation will be held at the church on Saturday morning at 9:00 AM until the time of his funeral mass.
