“ Today we start the process of saying good bye to my grandmother. I cherish all of the memories that I have with her. She was a very big part of my life. I spent time with her almost every Sunday of the last twenty something years. When I was young I spent a lot of time with her and my grandfather in Evangeline. When I became an adult, she moved to Vinton, next door to mom and dad, so I was able to continue spending a lot of time with her. My children were very close to great grandmaw also. My oldest daughter, Amy, was her home health nurse these last few months. I believe that she felt so much closer to her because of the time she had taking care of her. My other two children always spent time with her too. Ashley would always come with me on Sundays and my son Jimmy Dale would visit with her anytime that he was home. There is not enough room here to write all of the things I would like to say about this wonderful person, the love I had for her, the times I cherished with her, her love for the Lord, Jesus and her family. Maw Maw I will miss you terribly but I know that i will see you again. I love you and will always miss you

Your granddaughter, Renee, Jimmy and family

“ We just heard the news, concerning your mother.
She will be missed by each of you, her family and friends.
The lord will give each of you strength as you greet the people that come to share with you
in this special time of gathering.

You will find yourselves, embracing each other and giving to them words of encouragement and it will be from your hearts. You will feel their love for you and your family.

This is what I experienced when I had to go thru a similar situation.
I prayed for strength and it came when I ask, it was there.

The reports that you receive concerning your mother will bless your hearts.

Remember the good times you had together and this will help.

Also: share your stories that you found to be cute and funny. Talk about her life and etc. will help everyone.

She was so unique and special.

Love flowed from her.

Cherish the memories and the time
you had together. Laughing and making memories.

She stepped out of this life into that new life.

A GOOD THOUGHT...

NOW SHE IS DANCING AROUND THE THRONE OF THE LORD!!

And enjoying the beauty that is there..

May you have a dream of mom and a message that will comfort each of you.

In a dream, to comfort me, my mom ask me"

How are you doing? My reply was" I am ok.

I did not know if I was ok in real life but

I held onto the words of the dream. I'm OK.

I ask them how was heaven?

It is so beautiful! with so much excitement.

A beautiful dream and may you enjoy a comforting message also.

*Thank you for giving me this chance to send our condolences to this precious family.
signing off for now.*
