“ Dear Celida & Byron,

Bless your hearts. We are so sorry for your loss. Our hearts ache for both of you and your families. Praise God Zach was a believer in God and the comfort of knowing he is with God this very moment is sufficient. After all heaven is THE ULTIMATE DESTINATION. But it doesn't make it any easier. May God cradle both of you at this time of sadness. Keep clinging to God and celebrate the memories that ya'll shared with Zach. Love, Mo & Mike Malphrus

“ To Byron, Celida, Lana, and Family,

There is no way that I can even try to understand what you and your family is feeling right now. I wish only if there was a way to take even a little of the pain away to be even just a little more bearable for you all. There is only one who truly knows how you feel and that is our creator. He created us in his image and he alone is the only one that can truly understand how someone feels at a time of such loss. We all many times want to ask "why" when faced with such paralyzing greif but how comforted we are to know that Gods Word says in James 1:13 "When under trial, let no one say: "I am being tried by God." For with evil things God cannot be tried nor does he himself try anyone." Now is a time when you must all come together and be close to one another and for one another, and keep your faith strong knowing that God is a "God of all comfort" and that he is our "refuge and strength". 2 Corinthians 1:3,4- Psalms 46:1-3

No one can really give you the answer to why this tragedy happened to your family. They are not God, and neither are we. Your faith is truly being tested at this time, but GOD will prevail.

Bryon & Celida, you have so many who love you and are here to support you through these times.....lean on them. And as Edna said - you are cradled in God's arms.....feel him.

We love you and are thinking of you constantly!

“ Byron, Celida, and Lana: My heart aches for you. I have prayed for you regularly since this tragedy happened. I will never forget that huge, beautiful smile and that look of pride on his face after getting "the hit" after he had struggled all season, nor the love and support that you, as parents, brought to each and every game.
